

Call for Application
Assistant Professor in Economics (Production and value chain analysis) – Teaching and Research

Position: MOHAMMED VI POLYTECHNIC UNIVERSITY (Ben-Guerir, Morocco) is hiring Assistant Professor in Production and value chain analysis.

MOHAMMED VI POLYTECHNIC UNIVERSITY (UM6P) is a non-profit recent university with the ambition to promote world-class education and research, and to contribute to the development of the Southern countries in general, and the African ones in particular.

Job duties and responsibilities:

Duties comprise teaching, research, and development studies with equal time loads. A minimum budget and facilities are provided to undertake research in one or several research topics of the University Research Centers. However, it is supposed that the faculty member has the capability to raise the necessary external funding to support research works.

Profile and skills specifications:

The candidate must have a Doctorate or a PhD in Economics and show a proven experience in teaching and research. He or she must have proven skills in quantitative approaches and modeling, with significant scientific publications in the discipline and enough experience in higher education and scientific research supervising.

Application and selection procedure:

Applications must be sent to: Recruitment.Humanities@um6p.ma, before April 30, 2019, in a single electronic zipped folder with the mention « Economics » in the mail's subject. The folder must contain: 1) a detailed CV, 2) a full list of publications, 3) a copy of the Doctorate or PhD degree certificate, 4) Evidences of teaching experience in higher education.

The short-listed candidates will be invited to meet the university selection committee. When it is not convenient, this meeting can be done by videoconference.

Job salary and benefits: They are competitive and conform to international standards.

- Best in class salaries
- 30% annual bonus on gross salary.
- Research budget allowance to professor
- Best in class :
 - IP sharing policy (33% for professor)
 - MOOCs policy (60% for professor)
 - Consulting policy (100% for professor when teaching time is completed)
- Complete benefits including housing, tuition fees, life & medical insurance, retirement, maternity leave and sabbatical.

Duty location:

In UM6P Campus. It is a new structure which is endowed, in addition to modern education equipment, with residential housing for students, sport and leisure facilities. The campus is located in Ben Guerir-near Marrakesh.

Applications must be sent to: Recruitment.Humanities@um6p.ma, before April 30, 2019, in a single package with the mention « Economics » in the mail ' Subject.

For further information, please contact: Recruitment.Humanities@um6p.ma